BUG

The pack that seamlessly transitions from the daily grind to an adventurous weekend of multi-pitch climbing. Compact and ergonomic, the BUG is an 18-liter pack with no shortage of functional features, including a rope carry system, detachable helmet holder, large exterior zippered pocket, spacious main compartment for a harness, shoes, and clothes. Plus, it has a dedicated sleeve to carry a laptop or hydration system. Offering comfort and optimal support every step of the approach, this pack has padded shoulder straps and lateral webbing that can be tightened to compress the pack. It also opens from the top, providing a practical solution when you're at a hanging belay. Available in three colorways, it effortlessly unites form and function.

Lateral compression straps to hold the rope in place during the approach.

Large main compartment for a harness, shoes, and clothes, padded sleeve for laptop or hydration system, and two interior zippered pockets for small items.

Removable helmet holder.
